

2008-2009 National Security Education Program (NSEP) David L. Boren Scholarship and Fellowship

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce that the applications for 2008-2009 National Security Education Program (NSEP) David L. Boren Scholarship and Fellowship competitions are now available. Please let interested students know about this wonderful opportunity.

Created in 1991, NSEP awards undergraduate scholarships and graduate fellowships to American students for study of world regions critical to U.S. interests (including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America and the Caribbean, and the Middle East).

Boren Scholarships provide up to $20,000 for an academic year study abroad. Boren Fellowships provide up to $30,000 for language study and international research.

Information and the online applications for the scholarships and fellowships are available on the Institute of International Education's website: www.iie.org/nsep.

The application deadline for the Boren Fellowship is January 30, and the deadline for the Boren Scholarship is February 12. Campus representatives for the Boren Scholarships should have received their usernames and passwords by email this week. Campus representatives for the Boren Fellowships will be receiving their log in information in the forthcoming weeks.

For more information please contact us at 1-800-618-NSEP or nsep@iie.org. Please also feel free to contact me directly with any questions.

Best regards,

Susan Sharp
